February 17, 2016 | “Will Your Foundation Hold Up?”

Texts: Mt. 7:24-29; 1 Cor. 15:3-4; 1 Pe. 3:8-17; He. 5:11-6:2

IN A NUTSHELL From first thoughts organized and prioritized to a person’s “final words” we can identify what some people see as being MOST important. Jesus told us to be careful about the principles we build our lives on. Basically listen carefully to Him and act upon what we hear. Paul challenges skeptical shallow thinking Christians to the most critical historical event known to man. Can’t argue there! Peter challenges us to evaluate our faith on the basis of how we respond to suffering and skeptical people. When foundations are solid everything else above it retains or builds it’s value!

ICE BREAKER Have you made any New Year’s resolutions?

HIS WORD

1. What are the consequences of living life without listing your priorities and defining most important principles to live by?
2. Have you ever study any other worldviews that don’t rest on something historical like the death and resurrection of Jesus?
3. If you were to rewrite 1 Pet. 3:8-17 tailored to your life, then how would it read?

YOUR WORLD

Based upon the reverse side “2016 Personal Evaluation” how’s your foundation?

SMALL PIECES

Confidence in a world view...

- give us structures to help us determine questions and answers
- gives us emotional security
- validates our cultural norms
- helps us integrate our culture.
- helps us monitor cultural change
- provide psychological reassurance leading us (hopefully) to “world peace”

BIG PICTURE

1. Look into Jesus’ eyes... what do you see when He looks at you?
