Title: "Those whose Faith is Great!"

Texts: Matt. 15:10-28

In a Nutshell: "Jesus met a gentile woman whose "faith was great." Those who are willing to change worldviews look for truth without a desire to be affirmed for anything other than the truth. Fragile egos aren't able to see the world through another view. This will be a review of amazing people who have left their worldview to embrace Jesus.

This week's readings:

- January 25-31, Matt. 13-14

Next week's readings:

- Feb. 1 – 7, Matt. 15-18

Our Purpose:

To help families apply the truth of God's Word in everyday life and build closer relationships within our church.

Our Passage:

"But God has {so} composed the body... {that} the members should have the same care for one another."

1 Cor. 12:24-25 (NAS)

January 31, 2016 | "Blessed are Your Eyes..." - looking at the world through the eyes of a story teller."

Texts: Matthew 13

IN A NUTSHELL "Jesus used stories to explain to those that would listen some of the key truths about a Kingdom view of this world. There is evil, there are opinions about the value of the parables stories, but we all have free-will to establish personal opinions about those values, good and evil, right and wrong. Stories make truth come alive, pliable and real.

ICE BREAKER What is a favorite story that you remember one of your parents or grandparents telling you as a child? Was there a moral to the story?

HIS WORD

1. If you were forced to narrow each parable to ONE most dominant point, what would it be?
 - Parable of the Sower
 - Parable of the weeds
 - Mustard Seed and the Leaven
 - Hidden Treasure
 - Pearl of Great Value
 - The Net

YOUR WORLD

1. Judging by the time, money, and effort you have spent over the past year what would say you "value" most with your life?
2. If you valued "the Kingdom" more what might that look like?

SMALL PIECES

1. List the worldview topics found in these parables.

BIG PICTURE

1. Looking at all the parables—how is the biblical worldview different from other world views.

Parents with your Children...
